

FREDERICKSBURG POLICE INCIDENTS

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 25, 2013

ASSAULT:

200 block Morningside Dr, 2/23 9:30 p.m. A 67-year-old resident reported that he was taking trash out to his backyard when he saw a man in the yard and verbally confronted him. The unknown male pushed the victim back into the house, and the victim fought back by striking the unknown male in the head with his handheld oxygen machine. That action caused the suspect to retreat further into the house and allowed the victim to leave and walk to a neighbor's residence where he called 911.

The suspect was described as a white male in his 50s, approximately 5'8" and under 200 pounds, and wearing a dark blue or black sweatshirt and jeans. When police arrived and searched the victim's home, the suspect had left the scene. It was later discovered that a quantity of cash was missing from the residence.

Detectives are investigating the possibility that this incident may involve the same person of interest wanted for questioning in the double homicide that occurred in Fauquier County. That individual is still at large.
